“At heart, we are a local, street-level brokerage shop that excels in the complex assignments that larger shops aren’t necessary motivated to pursuing.”

Rawly Lantz leads a team of office brokers representing landlords and tenants in the Chicago suburban market. Rawly is a market specialist providing expertise to his entrepreneurial and institutional clients through lease and sale negotiations, tracking real-time tenants and trends in the marketplace, and preparing comprehensive market analytics. Rawly has negotiated over 500,000 square feet of leases with a total value in excess of $40,000,000.

Prior to joining the commercial real estate industry, he developed his sales, marketing and analytical skill set over seven years at RR Donnelley and the Robert Bosch Corporation. Rawly is an avid golfer and lettered in the sport multiple times during his collegiate career
