“Teamwork makes the dream work. At Cawley, we provide our clients with superb service by working together. This collaboration allows us to serve our clients in a more efficient, and comprehensive manner, leading to the best possible results for the client.”

Stevan Arandjelovic joined Cawley Chicago in 2018, working as a team with Frank Melchert. His expertise includes seller/landlord representation, buyer/tenant representation, and real estate analysis.

Mr. Arandjelovic enjoys building high trust relationships and helping his clients achieve maximum value from their real estate transactions. He enjoys working on all aspects of a project, being able to see the big picture, whilst understanding his client's objectives, with a results driven orientation. As a Chicago native, he has established strong relationships with businesses and city representatives.

Prior to Cawley Chicago, Mr. Arandjelovic began his commercial real estate career at NelsonHill in 2014. Before that, he achieved a Bachelor's of Science Degree from DePaul's Driehaus College of Business with a Major in Real Estate. As a member of the Cawley Chicago team, Mr. Arandjelovic exemplifies the company mission statement, to make a difference in peoples' lives professionally and personally through creating integrity-based relationships.
